

BEHIND YOUR WATER BILL

Ever wonder what your monthly water bill pays for? This is what goes into providing customers clean, safe and reliable water.

Water Services Water acquisition, collection, storage, treatment and delivery of clean water to homes/businesses

Infrastructure Updates & Additions Financing infrastructure for maintaining, upgrading and expanding our system including pipes, reservoirs, pump stations and water treatment facility

Regulatory Compliance Meeting government regulations and safe drinking water standards including annual water sample testing

Customer Service Meter reading, water conservation programs, public outreach on projects, school outreach, annual flushing, and valve and hydrant maintenance

Natural Resource Management & Protection Environmental protection for watersheds, recreation and habitats

Administration Technical expertise, billing support, staffing and training support and customer service to provide these services